

ETHICAL DILEMMA
Prof. Bholanath Dutta

A village, very far from city, having one hospital with a single doctor who is a surgeon. Nearby villages don't have any surgeon.

On the day of surgeon's daughter's marriage, during the crucial time of the ritual (giving away the bride to bridegroom), the surgeon receives a call from the hospital for an urgent operation.

What the doctor should do?